

Please do not dismantle New Jersey's "Do Not Call" list. For a bunch of people in government claiming to be in favor of states' rights, this completely goes against it. Maybe the folks in Washington should adopt one of the few good ideas to come out of Trenton.